

6.3 | BRIEFS INVOLVING APPEALS FROM FINAL DETERMINATIONS FINDING NO BREACH OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS OR AGENCY'S FAILURE TO IMPLEMENT ITS OWN DECISION

If you are appealing a final determination finding no breach of an EEO Settlement Agreement or an agency's own decision finding discrimination, your brief should clearly identify what specific provisions of the settlement agreement or agency decision you believe to have been breached and why you believe the agency's reasoning finding no breach is incorrect; or what remedy the agency promised in its decision that it has not provided.
