

RULE 40-5 | SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITIES

If pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention while a party's petition for rehearing or petition for rehearing en banc is pending, a party may promptly advise the clerk by letter, with a copy to all other parties. The body of the letter must not exceed 350 words, including footnotes. If a new case is not reported, copies should be appended. When such a letter is filed in paper, four copies must be filed.

