

ITEM 5.1.2 | CAPS DEFINITION

CAPS is defined as a computer application designed for in-court and in-chambers use by trial judges, their staff, and Court Administration personnel to access and use electronic case files and other data sources in the course of managing cases, scheduling, and conducting hearings, adjudicating disputed issues, and recording and reporting judicial activity.

