Cause of Discrimination Based on:

Date Most Recent or Continuing Discrimination Took Place:

- Race (Black) Color Religion
- Age National Origin
- Marital Status Retaliation
- Sex Disability

August 5, 1999

Personal Harm:

My name was deleted from the training schedule once and if I did not bring it to my supervisor's attention, I would have missed my mandatory training. I did not receive salary increases. I was given poor evaluations. I recently had to go to the doctor because of stress after the harassment and the doctor noted that I had high blood pressure that day and ordered me to take approximately 3 weeks off. As a result of the harassment, I had to use most of my sick leave.

Reason for Adverse Action:

Employer gave me poor reviews stating that I had bad grammar and that I was too rigid. I was not given any other reasons for the poor review ratings, write ups or lack of training opportunities.

Discriminatory Statement(s):

I feel that I have been discriminated against because I am black. I have been threatened with termination after I filed grievances. My grievance response was not received within 10 days as policy states. I was written up for something that is common practice in the workplace in retaliation for filing grievances. I was written up for missing one day from work when a white shift supervisor missed more than ten days when he was scheduled to work. I have been threatened with write-ups after I missed a mandatory meeting while on an approved personal leave day. I am talked down to and feel humiliated from the unequal treatment by my supervisors and in the presence of my subordinates. I have been harassed to the point that I fear dismissal and feel that my high blood pressure comes from continuous harassment from my supervisors.

P610F2

Relief Requested:

My employers should receive more diversity, interpersonal skills and supervisory training. I request corrections to my past disciplinary reports to that of my white counterparts who have equal violations. I request that my salary be equal to that of Scott Everett, white supervisor, or more based on my years of experience. I request that my previous evaluations be purged to reflect my actual work performance.
